The second foreign language courses are advanced (B1 level of knowledge of the language is required in order to attend the courses). Absolute beginners have to take the preparatory courses, which are given in the first semester. Each language course includes a part taught by the teacher and a certain number of hours of practice given by the native speaker assistant. The Hispanic Language and Culture course, in addition, includes specific Spanish grammar practice hours which will be held in English.

² Activities without semester obligations

The semester of provision is not specified since these are activities that students can carry out throughout academic course of study.

³ Elective courses

Students may choose the elective courses according to the academic regulations of International Tourism and Destination Management (<https://www.unimc.it/it/ateneo/normativa/regolamenti-di-ateneo/regolamenti-cds-scienze-della-formazione/>).

In addition to the ones in alternative within the study plan (Creative Processes for Tourism or Educational Tourism; French Language and Culture or Hispanic Language and Culture), for the a.y. 2022/2023, the Master Degree in International Tourism and Destination Management activates the following courses.
